WORLD ZAKAT & WAQF FORUM
14TH ANNUAL MEETING &
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

KUCHING 2025
SARAWAK • MALAYSIA
13-15 OCTOBER 2025
21-23 RABI AL-THANI 1447H

FOREWORD

Message from the Secretary General of the World Zakat and Waqf Forum

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
Assalamualaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh.

It is with great honour and anticipation that, I extend this personal invitation to you to join us as a valued partner and sponsor of the 14th World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF) Annual Meeting and International Conference, taking place from 13-15 October 2025 in the beautiful city of Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia.

This year's gathering carries profound significance. Under the theme "New Global Zakat and Waqf Order", we stand at the crossroads of history - where the traditional values of compassion and social justice meet the modern challenges of inequality, poverty, and economic uncertainty. More than ever, zakat and waqf are needed as powerful instruments to restore balance, provide dignity, and create opportunity for millions around the world.

It is a blessing that this conference will be held in conjunction with the 70th Anniversary of the Sarawak Religious Council (Majlis Agama Islam Sarawak) - an institution that has long championed the cause of Islamic social finance in Malaysia and beyond. At the same time, it coincides with Malaysia's ASEAN Chairmanship 2025, providing a regional and international platform to demonstrate how zakat and waqf can contribute to building a more inclusive, compassionate, and sustainable future.

This year, we are doing more than convening discussions. In addition to plenary sessions, we are offering master classes and workshops, where participants will explore real-world scenarios, futures thinking, and practical solutions to today's most pressing issues via economic empowerment and obligation to mankind and the society. These sessions are designed not only to educate, but to inspire action.

But none of this is possible without you.

Your partnership is not just about supporting an event. It is an investment in a vision — a future where zakat and waqf institutions work hand in hand to eradicate poverty, empower communities, and foster shared prosperity via economic empowerment. Your partnership will help bring voices from around the world together, sparking collaborations that will leave a legacy far beyond these few days in Kuching.

And you will be recognised not only for your generosity, but for your leadership. As a partner, you stand alongside those who are shaping a New Global Zakat and Waqf Order, one rooted in shared values and the collective responsibility we all carry for the welfare of humanity.

We look forward to welcoming you to Kuching. Together, let us be the catalyst for change, and the reason why someone, somewhere, will have hope for new fate, fortune and future in their purpose of creation and life.

Wassalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

DATUK DR. MOHD GHAZALI MD NOOR
Secretary General
World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF)

EVENT OVERVIEW

ABOUT WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM

The World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF) is a global platform advancing the Zakat and Waqf movement as dynamic twin instruments for social justice and economic empowerment. Initiated in 2007 in Malaysia, WZWF held its first Annual Meeting and International Conference in 2010, marking the formalisation of a collaborative movement dedicated to strengthening Islamic social finance globally.

Represented by institutional and individual members from 43 countries across Asia, Africa, Europe, and America, WZWF convenes and synergises stakeholders from diverse economic contexts—spanning high-income to low-income nations—with a shared mission to uplift the Ummah and eradicate poverty through collaborative innovation, strategic policy, and impactful action.

United by a common purpose, WZWF is committed to equipping and empowering its members to address evolving socio-economic and humanitarian challenges, while shaping a resilient and inclusive future for Islamic social finance.

The WZWF Secretariat is headquartered in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

THE 14TH WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM

The 14th World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF) Annual Meeting and International Conference will be held from 13 to 15 October 2025 at the Hikmah Exchange Event Centre in Kuching, Sarawak, in conjunction with the 70th Anniversary of Majlis Islam Sarawak. Hosted by the Sarawak State Government, Majlis Islam Sarawak, and Tabung Baitulmal Sarawak, and supported by Yayasan Waqaf Malaysia, GoBarakah as the Social Impact Partner, and the Global Waqf Conference (GWC) as the intellectual expert facilitator, the Forum is expected to welcome participants globally.

This year's conference will serve as a vital platform to reimagine the future of zakat and waqf through practical solutions, strategic dialogue, and collaborative action. The forum will bring together scholars, government officials, entrepreneurs, investors, philanthropists and organizations committed to Islamic social finance and enterprise development.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES OF THE WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM

1. Global Awareness

To elevate global understanding and visibility of Zakat and Waqf as transformative Islamic financial instruments, advancing their role in economic justice, inclusive development, and ethical philanthropy.

2. Institutional Development

To strengthen the institutional capacity, governance, and strategic frameworks of Zakat and Waqf bodies worldwide through knowledge exchange, standard-setting, and multi-stakeholder engagement.

3. International Collaboration

To foster robust cooperation among Zakat and Waqf organisations, regulatory bodies, scholars, and practitioners by building global networks, alliances, and cross-border partnerships.

4. Research and Development

To spearhead cutting-edge research, policy studies, and data-driven innovations that enhance the operational efficiency and socioeconomic impact of Zakat and Waqf institutions globally.

5. Women Empowerment

To integrate gender-inclusive strategies within Zakat and Waqf ecosystems, promoting women's participation as leaders, beneficiaries, and contributors in the Islamic social finance space.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES OF THE WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM

6. Youth Engagement

To cultivate a new generation of Zakat and Waqf leaders by engaging youth through capacity-building programmes, innovation challenges, and policy platforms that bridge tradition with technology.

7. Transparency and Accountability

To uphold integrity and public trust through transparent governance, ethical oversight, and regular reporting in the administration and utilisation of Zakat and Waqf funds.

8. Efficient Disbursement

To ensure timely, needs-based, and Shariah-compliant disbursement of Zakat and Waqf resources, guided by data systems, eligibility frameworks, and community input.

9. Poverty Alleviation and Social Welfare

To leverage Zakat and Waqf as strategic tools in addressing multidimensional poverty by supporting education, healthcare, food security, livelihood generation, and humanitarian response.

10. Enduring Development Initiatives

To align Zakat and Waqf efforts with long-term, high-impact development goals—ensuring enduring value through sustainable projects, asset-based models, and cross-sector investments.

KEY STRATEGIC INITIATIVES OF THE WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM (WZWF)

1. Annual Meetings and International Conferences

WZWF convenes high-level annual gatherings that bring together scholars, Shariah experts, policymakers, and practitioners to exchange insights, shape global narratives, and propose actionable frameworks on Zakat and Waqf. Conference themes have addressed critical topics such as food security, climate resilience, and Islamic responses to global socio-economic crises.

2. Research and Development

Through rigorous research and knowledge dissemination, WZWF identifies best practices, operational gaps, and innovative models to improve Zakat and Waqf governance, implementation, and socio-economic outcomes.

3. Global Zakat and Waqf Policy Advisory Council

A dedicated council established to formulate the Zakat Core Principles and Waqf Core Principles—serving as global reference standards for harmonised, sustainable, and Shariah-compliant policy frameworks.

4. Development of Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)

WZWF champions the development of unified SOPs for Zakat and Waqf institutions, ensuring consistency, integrity, and transparency. This includes document archiving systems, institutional governance frameworks, and structured membership guidelines.

5. Advocacy and Awareness

Committed to enhancing Zakat and Waqf literacy, WZWF undertakes global advocacy campaigns, thought leadership activities, and educational outreach to strengthen public understanding and participation in Islamic social finance.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES OF THE WORLD ZAKAT AND WAQF FORUM

6. Facilitating Cross-Border Collaboration

WZWF bridges institutions across borders, encouraging cooperation among public and private entities—including governments, NGOs, and philanthropic bodies—while upholding Shariah integrity and respecting national regulations.

7. Capacity Building and Reverse Linkages

Focused on talent development, WZWF supports capacity-building initiatives for Amil (Zakat officers) and Nazir (Waqf trustees), promotes professional certification standards, and facilitates knowledge transfer from more advanced to emerging institutions (reverse linkage).

8. Addressing Contemporary Issues

WZWF provides a platform for exploring Zakat and Waqf-based solutions to today's most pressing global challenges—such as the cost-of-living crisis, disaster response, and climate change—aligning faith-based finance with resilience-building.

9. Interfaith Collaboration

In pursuit of shared values of justice, compassion, and inclusive development, WZWF engages in interfaith dialogue and collaborative initiatives with leaders and institutions of other faith traditions.

10. Supporting Humanitarian Causes and Crisis Response

WZWF mobilises Zakat and Waqf resources to respond to humanitarian emergencies, offering critical support such as healthcare, shelter, food, and post-crisis recovery—both directly and through strategic partnerships.

PLENARY SESSIONS AT WZWF 2025

The 14th World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF) Annual Meeting and International Conference 2025 will feature a series of powerful plenary sessions at the heart of a global conversation on the future of Islamic social finance.

Guided by the visionary theme, “New Global Zakat and Waqf Order”, these sessions will convene influential leaders, pioneering scholars, and institutional trailblazers from around the world to reimagine the role of Zakat and Waqf as catalysts for systemic change in a rapidly shifting global landscape.

More than just discussions, these plenaries will ignite transformative collaboration, influence policy at the highest levels, and lay the foundation for an equitable, resilient, and interconnected Zakat and Waqf ecosystem—ready to meet the needs of both today and tomorrow.

SOLUTION EXCHANGE SESSIONS AT WZWF 2025

Format: Interactive, Peer-to-Peer Knowledge Sharing

Purpose: Scaling Solutions, Bridging Practice and Policy

The Solution Exchange Sessions at the 14th World Zakat and Waqf Forum (WZWF) 2025 are not your typical panel discussions. Designed for interactive, peer-driven engagement, these sessions offer a high-impact platform for institutions, innovators, and policymakers to share tested models, breakthrough strategies, and replicable frameworks in Zakat and Waqf implementation.

Built around two-way learning and experiential insight, participants will explore real-world operational successes, confront challenges head-on, and unlock pathways to scalable impact. Whether you're a policy architect, grassroots practitioner, or tech disruptor, this is where practical wisdom meets visionary action.

Step beyond theory. Share what works. Learn what's next.

- 6.1 Participants are not permitted to distribute advertisements, promotional materials, or solicit business outside their designated exhibition space or without prior written approval from the Event Organizer.
- 6.2 Any advertisement, publicity, or promotional material must align with the principles of the Event and not promote any activities or materials deemed inappropriate, unethical, or illegal by the Event Organizer.

7. Intellectual Property Rights

- 7.1 All intellectual property rights, including but not limited to logos, content, presentations, and designs associated with the Event, are owned by the Event Organizer or its licensors.
- 7.2 Participants agree not to use, reproduce, or distribute any intellectual property of the Event Organizer without prior written consent.
- 7.3 Any content or materials shared by Participants during the Event (e.g., presentations, discussions) must respect the intellectual property rights of third parties.

8. Data Protection

- 8.1 The Event Organizer will collect and process personal data in accordance with applicable data protection laws, including but not limited to the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 (PDPA) in Malaysia.
- 8.2 By registering for the Event, Participants consent to the collection, use, and sharing of their personal data for the purposes of Event organization, communication, and marketing.
- 8.3 Participants may opt-out of receiving promotional emails by following the instructions in the communications sent by the Event Organizer.

9. Amendments, Variations, or Modifications

- 9.1 The Event Organizer reserves the right to amend, vary, or modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Any amendments will be communicated to the Participants via email or other communication channels.
- 9.2 The updated Terms and Conditions will apply to all Participants, and continued participation in the Event after the changes have been communicated constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

10. Attendance

- 10.1 Participants must attend the Event in accordance with the Event schedule provided. The Event Organizer is not responsible for any disruptions to the Participant's attendance.
- 10.2 The Event Organizer reserves the right to deny entry or remove any Participant from the Event if their conduct is deemed inappropriate or disruptive to the Event.

11. Exhibition

- 11.1 Exhibitors must comply with the guidelines and regulations provided by the Event Organizer, including setup times, booth materials, and safety protocols.
- 11.2 The Event Organizer is not responsible for any loss, theft, or damage to exhibits or materials during the Event. Exhibitors are encouraged to secure appropriate insurance.
- 11.3 All exhibits must be approved by the Event Organizer prior to the Event. The Event Organizer reserves the right to refuse any exhibit or materials deemed unsuitable.

12. No Claims Against The Organizer

- 12.1 The Event Organizer, its employees, agents, and affiliates will not be held liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from participation in the Event, including but not limited to loss of business, revenue, or opportunity.
- 12.2 By participating in the Event, the Participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Event Organizer against any claims, damages, or losses arising out of their participation or attendance.

By submitting your registration, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms and Conditions.
